Background

My professional background includes 18 years experience working as a Chartered Accountant and Senior Manager in large International Chartered Accounting practices, advising small business owners, entrepreneurs and senior executives of large organisations on operating successful business ventures.

I have also been a Director of an Adelaide community based Credit Union for the past 6 years and write regular business and life coaching columns for SA InBusiness Magazine and Adelaide's InnerSelf.

As a coach

I am passionate about helping people create and live the life they have always wanted – their ideal business, dream career, more quality time, loving and fulfilling relationships, more energy, more balance and more fun!

With a strong corporate background, I specialise in providing one-one-one coaching and mentoring for senior executives, management and employees in service oriented organisations.

I also regularly speak to small groups on topics such as overcoming procrastination and keeping focused and through Blue Sky Coaching sponsor and provide mentoring for the South Australian Youth Entrepreneur Scheme.

Client Base

I work well with people wanting to live a fulfilling and passionate life and willing to do what it takes to make that happen. I enjoy working with SoHo [small office, home office] business owners and corporate executives - especially people in their 20's and 30's, busy professionals and creative individuals interested in developing their unique talents and gifts.

I have coached over 100 individuals ranging from entrepreneurs to small business owners through to senior executives and employees of large organisations, such as Westpac, Kosmea, IBM, Hunt & Hunt Lawyers, Channel 9, TMP/Hudson Global Resources and Macquarie Equities Limited.
